

University of Mississippi

eGrove

Personal and Business Correspondence, 1871-1880 (Series 1.5)

Aldrich Collection

3-23-1872

James Poole to W. L. Treadwell, 23 March 1872

James Poole

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/aldrichcorr_e

Part of the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation

Poole, James, "James Poole to W. L. Treadwell, 23 March 1872" (1872). Personal and Business Correspondence, 1871-1880 (Series 1.5). 13.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/aldrichcorr_e/13

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Aldrich Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Personal and Business Correspondence, 1871-1880 (Series 1.5) by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Atlanta Oct. 17th - 1892

My dear Mrs Abick

I would like to say much to you - but cannot now - Our hearts turn to you as dear and true friends who have your selves known sorrow - Can you not come and see us - You dont know how glad we should be to see you - all or any of you - Dear Lizzie is no less dear to us than ever - I should have written her at the time of her marriage but we were watching our dear sick Nattie with great anxiety - Our home and our hearts were very lonely. In sickness as in health she was a light, and joy. But she has gone to her dear Saviour and to her darling sister.

I hope to hear from you - indeed we hope to see you. Much love to Mr. Ulrich, Richard, Lizzie and Marvin, and to our other friends.
With kind remembrance to dear Lizzie's husband.

Your Loving friend
Charlotte E. Jones.